

Accommodation

Agoda is one of my go-to hotel booking sites. I find it super easy to use. The network includes more than 1,5 million hotels.

Hotels Combined has a Best Rate Guarantee so you can find some of the best deals around on this site.

In the Hotels.com network there are more than 300,000 properties in 60 countries including B&Bs, condos and all-inclusive resorts.

Flight Booking Sites

Vayama searches 800+ airlines for 9000+ destinations. Lots of flight choices with the best rates online.

Car Rental, Train and Transfers

Avis is a global brand with a stellar reputation. I have used their services throughout Greece, Europe and travel throughout the world.

I also highly recommend Auto Europe. Cheap car hire made easy. Choose comfort, flexibility and the best prices.

If you are traveling to Crete, I highly recommend this family owned business. Friendly and professional service throughout the island.

Blacklane is a very efficient and professional airport transfer service available in major cities. Check out my review while I visited London here.

RailEurope is the leading authority of European rail, representing more than 35 European railroads.

Travel Cards

If you're planning to see the major sights of Athens, check out the Athens City Pass. For my full review head to my post here.

If you're traveling in the States, I recommend City Pass. They produce and sell discounted ticket packages to top tourist attractions.
